

Brexit and Legal Practice: Northern Ireland,
Ireland and the European Union

A No Deal Brexit?

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NORTHERN IRELAND

Brexit and Legal Practice: Northern Ireland, the Republic of Ireland and the European Union

A No Deal Brexit?

As the 31st October 2019 fast approaches there remains much uncertainty about Brexit.

The possibility of a 'No-Deal' Brexit scenario remains and its implications unknown.

The Society recognises the importance of providing its members with updates and timely information on key issues arising out of a possible 'no-deal' Brexit.

The details of the events are outlined below.

The Society is keen that as many members as possible attend this series of free events to allow them to access the current and up-to-date information.

Speakers

Newry, Belfast, Enniskillen and Derry/Londonderry

David A. Lavery CB comes to the Law Society of Northern Ireland with an exceptionally strong record of service in the justice system including holding the position of Deputy Permanent Secretary and Director of Access to Justice in the Department of Justice.

Mr Lavery also previously served as Chief Executive of the Northern Ireland Courts and Tribunals Service between 2001 and 2012. He also served as Principal Private Secretary to the First Minister from 1998-2001.

Mr Lavery holds an LL.B from Queen's University, Belfast and an LL.M from Harvard Law School and he spent the earlier part of his career in private practice. He took up the role as Chief Executive of the Law Society of Northern Ireland on Monday 2nd September 2019.

Newry and Belfast

John Campbell is Economics and Business Editor for BBC Northern Ireland, a position he has held since September 2013. Prior to that he was a senior BBC producer working across TV, Radio and Online with special responsibility for business coverage. He began his career on the Liverpool Daily Post and Echo. John is a graduate of the University of Sheffield.

Newry and Belfast

Angela McGowan joined the CBI in October 2017 as Director for Northern Ireland, having previously worked for eight years as the Chief Economist for Danske Bank. She has enjoyed a varied career spanning 23 years as an economist in both the public and the private sector. Angela has experience sitting on several boards including Vice-Chair of Enterprise NI and Non-Executive Director of Young Enterprise. She currently sits on the Northern Ireland Audit Office's external review panel and is a member of the Employer's Forum at Queen's University in Belfast.

Derry/Londonderry

Stephen Kelly is the Chief Executive Officer of Manufacturing NI, a Business Representative body for the manufacturing sector in Northern Ireland which represents 5,500 firms with 85,000 employees and £20bn sales at home and abroad. A member of the UK Board of Trade since 2019, he also sits on the Northern Ireland Audit Office's external review panel and is a member of the Employer's Forum at Queen's University in Belfast.

Dates/Times and locations

Monday 28th October 2019

Newry

Canal Court Hotel
9:00am - 10:00am

Monday 28th October 2019

Belfast

Law Society House
1:00pm - 2:00pm

Thursday 31st October 2019

Enniskillen

Killyhevlin Hotel
9:00am - 10:00am

Thursday 31st October 2019

Derry/Londonderry

City Hotel Derry
1:00pm - 2:00pm

CPD 1 General Group Study hour available

Cost Free

To book Please email: Intern1@lawsoc-ni.org