BOOKLET OF CRIMINAL OFFENCES IN NORTHERN IRELAND

2016

B.J.A.C. Valentine
This is 7th edition of the Booklet last published in 2013, containing a handy guide to the law of criminal offences in Northern Ireland. It is up-to-date to the law as it stands in mid November 2016. The compiler is the author of the cd All the Law of NI, the book on Criminal Procedure in Northern Ireland (SLS 2010) and other major law texts. It is a compendium of all the major and important criminal offences, both indictable and summary, under the law of Northern Ireland: those offences which arise in the courts more than occasionally and those which appear important for other reasons.
