CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT REQUIREMENTS 2022

Solicitors are required to undertake relevant education and study to maintain and develop their professional knowledge, skills and ethical awareness. This is a regulatory requirement.

Solicitors are required to submit an on-line CPD return, annually. If a solicitor does not comply with the CPD Regulations, the Education Committee may direct they do so within a period of time and impose such other conditions as it may decide. Failure to comply may lead to a referral to the Professional Conduct Department.

Solicitors may be entitled to apply for an exemption from some or all of the CPD requirements. For details on Exemptions please refer to page 4.

KEY CHANGES IMPLEMENTED IN 2021 AND AGAIN APPLICABLE TO THE 2022 CPD YEAR

- Webinars and online learning will be accepted as Group Study CPD.
- There is no longer a requirement to complete separate Client Care and Practice Management CPD. Client Care and Practice Management topics will still be provided by the Society as part of its CPD provision but will be included in Group Study. For Definitions of “Group Study” and “Private Study” please refer to page 5.
- There will be no hard copy CPD Record Card sent to members for the 2022 CPD year. CPD returns will be made using an online submission form. The Society will not accept hard copy CPD Record Cards or returns for 2022.
- For the 2022 CPD year several of the Society’s CPD events will be online. Subject to Public Health guidance, consideration will be given to hosting some events in person at venues to be confirmed.
- Payment for all of the Society’s CPD events will be made online. There is no longer a facility for events to be paid for by cash or cheque.

SUMMARY OF CPD REQUIREMENTS FOR 2022

A full-time practising solicitor must complete the following minimum CPD hours (subject to any exemption):

- A total of 15 hours (of which a maximum of 5 hours can be Private Study).

The remaining 10 hours Group Study, which includes webinars and online learning, must include:

- A minimum of 2 hours Compulsory Risk Management CPD (only if the solicitor is in Private Practice);
- A minimum of 3 hours Compulsory Conveyancing CPD (only if the solicitor undertakes or is involved in any conveyancing transactions).

The Law Society of Northern Ireland does not currently award accreditation to any course or course providers.
Solicitors practising outside Northern Ireland or who undertake CPD for another professional or regulatory body may satisfy the CPD Regulations through alternative CPD or training but should contact the CPD Department at cpd@lawsoc-ni.org to discuss.

Solicitors who seek to reduce their period of restricted practice from 3 years to 2 years should contact the CPD Department at cpd@lawsoc-ni.org to discuss.

Solicitors are required to maintain details and proof of any CPD completed in 2022, which the Society may inspect from time to time.

The Society will take your CPD compliance into account if required to exercise its wider regulatory functions.

This session will focus on how insurance can help in the administration of estates where, despite all reasonable efforts, distribution cannot proceed.

Policies protect executors, administrators, beneficiaries and, importantly, their legal advisors and potentially help avoid PI claims. They can be used to avoid the necessity of going to court or to support an application to the court. Cover can be offered for specific issues such as missing beneficiaries, missing wills, and claims from creditors, along with a wide range of contentious issues such as challenges to a will, charities exerting a claim and misallocation of shares in a will.

The presentation will include several case studies and examples of claims.

The session will be delivered by Mike Wright, Consultant DUAL Asset. Kate Thorp, Manager - Executor and Inheritance Protection will provide technical support.

Mike has spent 34 years in Building Societies and Banking, where he held senior regional and head office roles, followed by 15 years in Legal Indemnities.

Kate is a Senior Underwriter and is recognised in the market as one of the most experienced Underwriters in this field with over 20 years’ experience. She heads up the Executor and Inheritance team for DUAL Asset.

NON-CONTENTIOUS PROBATE PILOT - ONLINE PORTAL DEMONSTRATION, INCLUDING CAVEATS AND INFORMATION

Date: Thursday 10 February 2022
Time: 1pm – 2pm
Cost: £35 + VAT
CPD hours: 1 Group Study

Non-contentious Probate has been chosen as a pilot for online services in the NICTS Modernisation Portfolio. The Project has re-designed and modernised the non-contentious probate service to meet the changing needs and expectations of users. It avails of new technologies to create and deliver a digital product that will improve the service for all users.

In keeping with the spirit of “Digital First, not Digital Only” the paper-based process has also been modernised by developing user friendly application forms, with guidance notes and relevant information throughout, to guide the user through the process in easy-to-understand steps and language.

Further to the previous webinar held in April 2021, the aim of this session is to update members on additional functionality, namely caveats, and to continue to raise awareness of the portal. It will demonstrate how the portal works and members will be guided through the new application processes, including entering a caveat. There will also be Q & A time built into the session.

While this session will primarily be beneficial to non-contentious probate practitioners, the pilot will be reviewed as a proof of concept for the development of other online court services and therefore will potentially be of interest to all members.

The session will be delivered by representatives from the NICTS Probate Office and the NICTS Modernisation Branch.
The vast majority of dealings between solicitors and clients are conducted in an efficient and satisfactory way. However, occasionally problems can arise and when this happens it is important that solicitors deal with the situation efficiently and in accordance with the Solicitors (Client Communication) Regulations 2008.

The Client Complaints Committee is continuing with its series of seminars to assist the profession in understanding the types of complaints received by the Society. It suggests practical ways to avoid complaints arising and outlining procedures to effectively manage complaints when they are received from clients.

Independent Custody Visitors make unannounced visits to police custody suites to check on the welfare of detainees, to ensure they have been given their rights and to prevent ill-treatment. Similar systems exist in many countries around the world. In England and Wales, the system was set up following the Brixton disturbances in 1981 and in Northern Ireland it followed a recommendation made by Patten. The system is also designed to comply with the Protocol to the United Nations Convention Against Torture, Cruel and other Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment.

This session will set out the role of these visitors, interviews with detainees and how they can help to protect your clients.

This information and awareness session will be delivered by experienced staff from LSANI. They will provide information to members on making applications and payment requests. The speakers will provide guidance and advice on common errors with the applications process and claims for payment, with an aim to reducing delay and queries and improving the process for all involved.

The annual Sports Law Conference is now an established and anticipated part of the Law Society’s CPD Programme. We have had many high profile and expert presenters over the years offering practitioners a unique opportunity to hear from leaders in the sporting field – and the 2022 Conference will continue in this vein.

2022 will be a particularly special Conference, as it is the 10th Sports Law Conference. Year on year many of our key contributors have joined us without fail, as either an attendee or guest presenter and we are grateful to our ever-growing attendee base. We will celebrate this unique milestone alongside our Conference partner, the NI Sports Forum - the recognised umbrella organisation for the voluntary sector of sport in Northern Ireland. Whilst we held our 2021 Conference online, we hope to return to an in-person event to celebrate this milestone.

Please sign up now to secure your place which in the first instance will be online. If this Conference becomes a physical event, places may be limited and therefore will be allocated on a first come first served basis.
