We are delighted to invite you to these public events organised by the School of Law, Ulster University!

TJI and Equality Coalition Seminar: Could rights-based safeguards make Stormont function?
13 October, 13.30 (light lunch), 14.00-17.00. Belfast campus and online
https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/could-rights-based-safeguards-make-stormont-functional-tickets-711233517597

TJI Seminar with Kelsey Rhude (Galway): The Liberian Truth and Reconciliation Commission’s Recommendations on Reparations: A missed opportunity for economic, social and cultural rights, or transformative potential?
19 October, 14.30, Belfast campus, BA-00-008
https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/tji-seminar-with-kelsey-rhude-university-of-galway-tickets-728793459857

TJI, INCORE and Hume O’Neill Chair in Peace seminar: Responding to disappearance in Chile, Northern Ireland and Turkey
25 October, 15.00-16.30 Belfast Campus, BC building
https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/responding-to-disappearance-in-chile-northern-ireland-and-turkey-tickets-728299031007

Book Launch for Dr Adam Buick’s Intellectual Property Rights in Pharmaceutical Test Data: Origins, Globalisation and Impact
27 October, 15.00 Belfast campus, BC-07-313 Moot Court Room, followed by refreshments on Floor 7 at Faculty reception

TJI and Equality Coalition Seminar: How could minority and women’s rights be protected in a United Ireland?
15 November 13.00 (light lunch), 13.30-17.00. Belfast campus and online
https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/how-could-minority-and-womens-rights-be-protected-in-a-united-ireland-tickets-713039790207

All-Island Social Security Network: Social Security on the Island of Ireland: Current Challenges and Future Opportunities
6 December 10.30-15.00, Belfast Campus
Details soon at https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/o/school-of-law-ulster-university-32029674175