UK and Irish perspectives on Brexit.

November 18th at 10:30 UK/11:30 CET.
(Duration approx. 110 minutes)

This will be the Society’s fourth webinar on practical questions and problems presented by Brexit. This event will consider the challenges presented in the context of the United Kingdom and Ireland. We shall be delighted to welcome Judges and senior academics to discuss their perspectives on the practical questions and challenges ahead for the United Kingdom and Ireland.

We will once again have the pleasure of having Ian Forrester QC as Chairman and Sir David Edward giving his summation at the end.

Ian Forrester QC LLD
Chair.
President of the FBLS.
Formerly Judge of the General Court of the European Union from 2015 to 2020.

Sir David Edward QC LLD
Summation.
Formerly Judge of the Court of Justice of the European Communities.
The other speakers for this webinar will be:

Professor Katy Hayward
The Protocol and the Withdrawal Agreement.
Professor of Political Sociology in Queen’s University Belfast. She holds a Senior Fellowship in the UK in a Changing Europe think-tank where she leads a major project on ‘The future and status of Northern Ireland after Brexit.’

Professor Brice Dickson
Employment and discrimination questions – Northern Ireland.
Emeritus Professor of International and Comparative Law at Queen’s University Belfast. His research interests are mainly in judicial activism, human rights law, policing law and employment law. His latest book is The Irish Supreme Court (Oxford University Press, 2019).

The Rt. Hon Lord Justice Bernard McCloskey
Post-Brexit – The Rule of Law.
