

PLANNING FOR BREXIT

Tuesday 5 March 2019

Members are invited to attend a discussion focussing on the United Kingdom (UK) withdrawal from the European Union (EU) and issues arising for the legal profession.

We are delighted to be joined by a number of contributors to discuss the issues including civil justice co-operation post-Brexit and “no deal” planning issues at the UK Government level, with representatives from the Ministry of Justice in London in attendance.

1.30pm - Lunch provided

2.00pm - Introduction

Jenny Pickrell

Head of EU & Trade Legal Services Policy,
Ministry of Justice

Laurene McAlpine

(Deputy Director, Civil Justice Policy,
Department of Justice, Northern Ireland)

Jo Wilson

Senior Brexit Lawyer,
(Department of Justice, Northern Ireland,
Legal Team)

Michael Foster

(DOF, Head of Civil Law Reform Division, Departmental Solicitors' Office)

Dr Frank Geddis

(Head of Research and Governance,
Law Society of Northern Ireland)

3.15pm - Q&A session

3.30pm - Finish

CPD - 1 General Group Study

Cost - Free

Venue - Law Society House
96 Victoria Street, Belfast

Bookings - Intern2@lawsoc-ni.org

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NORTHERN IRELAND

